★ HOLLYWOOD GOSSIP ★

When Victor Mature completed the final scene for "Dangerous Mission,"—that's the Technicolor drama in which he co-stars with Piper Laurie, Vincent Price, William Bendix and Betta St. John—he confessed that he was particularly happy about two things: In "Dangerous Mission," he wears long pants and short hair while in his two previous films it was just reversed. He wore long hair and short skirts.

Rita Gam will co-star with Jeff Chandler and Jack Palance in "Sign of the Pagan" . . . Rock Hudson drew the top male role in "Bengal Rifles," originally intended for Tyrone Power . . . RKO signed Alvy Moore, the stage comic, for an important role in "Susan Slept Here" . . . Evelyn Keyes will star in "The Promise" to be produced by Gabriel Pascal in Italy . . . Adele Jergens plays the only feminine role in "Fireman Save My Child" . . . And Pal, he's the son of Lassie, will be seen in "A Bullet is Waiting," which stars Jean Simmons.

On the "Brigadoon" set, Gene Kelly and Van Johnson were teamed in a dance routine. This was a nostalgic bit of casting as it was 13 years ago that they appeared in the same musical number on Broadway in "Pal Joey." In "Brigadoon" the two share top honors with Cyd Charisse and Elaine Stewart.

Rosalind Russell and her husband, Fred Brisson, will reactivate their film company, Independent Artists, when the star heads for Hollywood this summer to star in "The Girl Rush."

★ ★ ★

The special effects crew working on Walt Disney's "Rob Roy" had to create a perfect mist for some of the battle scenes in the all-live action Technicolor production filmed in Scotland. They discovered the best method for creating a non-irritating Scotch mist was
